CITY UNION RALLY. Quarterly Meeting of the Young Baptists To Be Held To-Day.

BALTIMORE CONVENTION.

Richmond Will Send a Big Delegation, and Several Hundred Will Go from Virginia-Some of the Attractive Features.

The quarterly meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union of Richmond and Manchester will be held at the Second church this afternoon at 4:20 o'clock. This meeting will have special reference to the tist Young People's Union Association, soon to be held in Baltimore, and the exercises will be of an interesting character. There will be excellent music, the usual roll-call, and responses, reports of the unions for the quarter, and short addresses by Rev. H. A. Eagby and Rev. Dr. W. L. Wright, The former will give some echoes of the recent session of the outhern Baptist Convention, and Dr. Wright will give foreshadows of the Baltimore convention MANY VIRGINIANS WILL GO.

As the time for the assembling of the great army of young Baptists in Baltimore draws nearer, the interest in the gathering increases. The convention meets one week from next Thursday, and meets one week from next lauraday, and will continue through Sunday.

Preparations are being made on an elaborate scale, and the indications are that the capacity of the tent built to accommodate 10,000 persons will be fully taxed. The general arrangements for the convention are in the hands of an Executive Committee, comprising the followconvention are in the hands of an Executive Committee, comprising the following well-known Christians workers: Rev. C. McDowell, Richard Laws Lee, Joshua Levering, J. Harry Tyler, members of Executive Committee. The headquarters are at the Young Men's Christian Association building.

Mr. H. W. Cottrell, chairman of the building.

Mr. H. W. Cottrell, chairman of the State Transportation Committee for Virginia, is receiving many letters daily from those who contemplate attending the convention. Richmond will send a large delegation, leaving here on the afternoon of the 17th via the York-River and bay route, and it is probable that 400 or 500 will go from the State altogether.

HAVE A BICYCLE RUN.

HAVE A BICYCLE RUN.

The very attractive programme for the convention has already been printed in the Dispatch. There will be several sessions each day. The number of speakers who will take part will reach into the hundreds. Among the prominent American speakers are the following: P. S. Henson, of Chicago, A. C. Dixon. of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Rev. O. C. S. Wallace, of Toronto; Rev. W. P. Henson, of Montreal; Dr. H. M. Wharton, of Baltimore; Dr. M. B. Wharton, of Norfolk; Rev. A. J. Dickinson, of Selma, Ala; Dr. Ed. B. Pollard, of Roanoke, Va., and others. President J. C. Moss has appointed J. Garland Pollard to respond for Virginia at the "Salutation of the Flags," and to not as State president of the convention.

It has been decided within the last few days to have a bicycle run on Saturday, July 20th, at 4 o'clock, after the Etate rallies are over. Delegates who desire to enter this run are invited to take their wheels to Baltimore with them. A place has been provided for the stor-ing of wheels, when not in use, at the tent. Mr. O. Milton Dennis, who will have charge of this feature, writes to Mr. Cottrell: "I want to have at least to Mr. Cottrell: "I want to have at least 2,000 wheelmen in line. The start will be made at the tent, and the ride will be through the prettiest part of Baktimore. As an escort the various clubs of Baltimore will co-operate with me. If you can possibly do so, let me know how many riding delegates will come with your delegation." Those who will go prepared to enter this run should advise Mr. Cottrell at once. All who attend, whether delegates or not, can get reduced rates on the railroads and have arrange-ments made for them with delegates by applying to the transportation leader. A "Side-Trip Bulletin" has been issued, giving brief descriptions of points of in-terest that may be visited during the week following the convention. The tent will be located at the main entrance to Druid Hill Park, and a large lunch-tent Druid Hill Park, and a large lunch-tent will be pitched near by, so that the delegates may obtain lunch and refreshments without inconvenience. Among the points to which excursions will be run are the Caverns of Luray, Annapolis, and Bay Ridge; Penmar and Gettysburg, Ocean City, Washington, and Mount Vernon. A new feature of the convention will be the denominational exhibits. Collections illustrating the progress of the denomination in the line of missions, schools, and publications will be displayed in specially-prepared pavilions. It is understood that Richmond College will be represented in these exhibits.

The Information Committee will provide delegates to the convention with a handsomely mounted map containing the location of the convention-tent, color railies, State headquarters, and all points of interest.

SHOES AND LEATHER HIGHER.

There Is a Steady Rise in All Grades, and Manufacturers Busy. Our boot, shoe, and leather merchants are still very busy; prices are about the same, and retailers are willingly paying the advance, but are constantly on the lookout for job-lots.

Country shoe-dealers have awakened to the rise in leather, which went up 1-2c. per pound last week, and are disposed to lay in stocks. Shoe-salesmen experience less objetion than they expected to encounter, and buyers who curtailed their orders a month ago on account of a small advance are now paying a larger one and buying more extensively. Shoes are being sold by jobbers at less than it would cost manufacturers to produce them. They have cut up what leather they had, and are filling orders as rapidly as possible. Prices in the future will be based on current rates, and shoes will be sold at a more uniform figure. Jobbers are in need of shoes, but many orders cannot be filled until the middle of September. The advance on what are termed cheap shoes has been large in comparison with that on higher grades, which has tended to restrict sales, A rise of 21 1-2c, on split creedmoors seems large, and still it is said to be as low as manufacturers can afford to make it.

said to be as low as manufacturers can afford to make it.

Wax and kip boots and shoes are being soid right along at the full advance—$6 for kip and $5 for split. There is a good demand for heavy shoes. Kip goods are 30c, higher than a year ago, and grain goods have jumped 27 f-2c.

Brogans cost more than ever before, and cannot be bought for anything like a notes. An advance of 25c, per pair is asked.

and cannot be bought for anything like a price. An advance of 25c, per pair is asked. Grain creedmoors are being held at 35c, advance; oil-grain, 42c, and split goods, 20c, per pair. Manufacturers have all the orders they can fill from now to September 1st. The advance on women's grain shoes ranges from 25 to 30c; oil-grain, 27 1-2 to 32c, and buff goods are up 25c, per pair. Jobbers are ordering in all the women's light shoes bought, and placing orders for a few more cases. Calf goods are also up, shoes having risen 25c, a pair and boots 34 per case.

Jobbers are receiving and shipping rubbers. Hichmond merchants received 4,713 cases of boots and shoes last week.

AN OLD BATTLE-SCARRED FLAG.

Captain Pumphrey Secures the Colors of the 13th N. C. Regiment. Captain W. F. Pumphrey, of this city, has recently acquired possession of the historic old flag of the Thirteenth North Carolina Regiment, which was nearly cut to pieces by bullets in the various battles in which it was carried. He obtained the highly-prized trophy from Mr. Charles D. Hill, formerly of the well-known Richmond firm of Hill & Skinker, but now proprietor of the Hotel Brunswick, at Waynesboro'. Mr. Hill sends the following memoranda of the old flag's blatter.

INSTRUCTIONS TO DELEGATES.

Mr. Cottrell has issued a clreular to the Virginia unions, in which he gives the following instructions to those who are going to Baltimore:

1. Upon your arrival in the convention clity you will be met by the Reception that has been assigned as headquarters for your party.

2. Upon arriving at the church each person in the party, whether delegate or visitor, is expected to fill out a registration-card. All headquarters will be supplied with an abundance of these cards.

3. Each delegate must personally present his credentials for approval before being badged. Visitors, after having filled out the registration-card, will go direct to the badge-table. Two Runaways Yesterday.

About 8 o'clock yesterday morning the horse of Mr. Bogg, hitched to a wagon and left standing at the corner of First and Broad streets, took fright and ran away. Near Clay street it came in col-lision with a tree and the wagon was completely demolished. The horse was caught on Clay street near Third, and no further damage was done.

About noon resterday a horse attached to a wagon, belonging to Mr. W. D. Sutherland, which was hired by Mr. J. A. Morris for delivering parcels, became frightened and dashed down Cary street, colliding with several vehicles. When near the corner of Ninth the wagon was turned upside down and the hind spring broken. The horse then broke away from the wagon and ran up Ninth to Sweeney's alley, and was finally caught in front of Ainalle's carriage-shops. During its mad career the wagon shops. During its mad career the wagon struck a surrey belonging to Mr. Edward J. Fagan and broke a shaft and other-wise damaged the vehicle. As far as could be ascertained no one was hurt.

RECORDER GOFF'S CANE.

Its Carving Symbolical of His Recent Public Services. (New York World.) Recorder Goff has received a nade by an inmate of the Soldiers' Home, at Hampton, Va. The cane is of heavy dogwood, and queerly engraved. The handle represents a dog's graved. The handle represents a dog's head, having in its mouth the head of a tiger. A collar around the dog's neck is labelled "Goff," and an inscription further down on the cane reads: "I am the dog that killed the tiger."

In a letter the donor writes that he had read in the World of the activity displayed by Mr. Goff to kill the tiger, and expresses the hope that the cane will remind him of his public service.

Recorder Goff has the cane at his home.
